

Welling

105, 443

- Q What is her name? A. Helen. And Mr. Baetz and his wife.
Now, those parts you can copy. So, I only met this fellow at that time, see, and his wife. They all four have given sworn statements.
- Q I am going to ask you, Mr. Welling, if you would consent to sending to Senator Case the copies of the affidavits signed by your relatives at Columbia? A. No, not signed.
The copies.
- Q The copies of the affidavits signed by your relatives at Columbia? A. Yes, with their names and addresses.
- Q And the original affidavits which Simpson sent to you--that much you did forward? A. Yes. Do you want his letters too?
- Q And his letters, and Simpson's letters, yes. A. Well, all that matter pertaining to it. You will have to leave me his address.
- Q Did you ever see Mr. Stevens driving any car? A. Yes.
- Q In Lavallette or elsewhere? A. Every day, almost every day, he drove by my place.
- Q What kind of car did he drive? A. A Ford station wagon.
- Q Did you ever see him drive any car other than a Ford?
- A Never saw him drive any other car. His wife always sat at the wheel of her own car. I do not believe he could drive any other car.
